Bougon

What is your role within the CDSA ?

I am the technical advisor for Isère. I organize and I develop the physical and sports activities for athletes with intellectual disabilities in Isère.

What is at stake with these world championships ?

These championships raise awareness for people that athletes with intellectual disabilities can compete at a high level.

Is it difficult to organize these championships ?

*It's not difficult, but it requires a lot of work, time and dedication.
I'm very delighted to organize this event.*
